you to file a written response on this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. You will receive a copy of the proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find court forms and other information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court. There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case. jAVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS 2023 INFORMAL BIDDING
The Los Angeles Community College District (LACCD) has adopted the Uniform Public Construction Cost Accounting Act (UPCCA) effective January 1, 2023. LACCD is inviting all interested licensed contractors to submit an application to be included on LACCD's 2023 Informal Bidding Contractor List of qualified contractors. LACCD will maintain a list of qualified contractors according to the trade categories of work that they perform. Qualified contractors would be solicited on each informal bid between $60,000 and $200,000 (LACCD reserves the right to formally bid a project under $200,000). Contractors that are interested in being on the 2023 Informal Bidding Contractor List of qualified contractors are required to have a current contractor license for their designated classification(s) and are subject to verification from the Contractor State License Board (CSLB). Bid bonds, performance bonds, and payment bonds would continue to be required of all contractors doing work under these provisions. SB 854 was signed into law on June 20, 2014. LACCD requires all contractors who submit a 2023 Informal Bidding Contractor List application to be registered with the Department of Industrial Relations. If interested in being placed on the LACCD's 2023 Informal Bidding Contractor List for public works, please complete the LACCD application. We will be reviewing and approving Pre-Qualification application forms throughout the year. The first review date for submission of completed applications is January 6, 2023 2:00 p.m. The application can be accessed on the LACCD Facilities Planning & Development webpage: https://www.laccd.edu/Departments/Facilities
Questions may be directed to Facilities Planning & Development by contacting Frank Padilla via email: padilla@laccd.edu. Dated: Wednesday, December 21, 2022 Los Angeles, California By: Frank Padilla, Senior Administrative Analyst

PROBATE

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF JAMES K. FLACK AKA JAMES K. FLACK, III AKA JAMES KIRKPATRICK FLACK, III CASE NO. 22STPB12261
 To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of JAMES K. FLACK AKA JAMES K. FLACK, III AKA JAMES KIRKPATRICK FLACK, III
 A Petition for Probate has been filed by HILARY FLACK in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.
 The Petition for Probate requests that HILARY FLACK be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
 The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 1/19/2023 at 8:30 A.M. in Dept. 44 Room N/A located at 111 NORTH HILL STREET, LOS ANGELES, CA 90012. If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
