WARNING - IMPORTANT INFORMATION
California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If the parties to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the deed that characterizes the property as joint tenancy, tenants in common, or community property will be controlling, and not the community property presumption. You should consult your attorney if you want the community property presumption to be written into the recorded title to the property.

ADVERTENCIA - INFORMACIÓN IMPORTANTE.
De acuerdo a la ley de California, las propiedades adquiridas por las partes durante su matrimonio o pareja de hecho en forma conjunta se consideran propiedad comunitaria para fines de la división de bienes que ocurre cuando se produce una disolución o separación legal del matrimonio o pareja de hecho. Si cualquiera de las partes de este caso muere antes de que la corte divida la propiedad comunitaria de tenencia conjunta, el destino de la misma quedará determinado por las cláusulas de la escritura que caracterizan a la propiedad, y no por la presunción de propiedad comunitaria. Si quiere que la presunción de propiedad comunitaria se encuentre en la escritura de la propiedad, debería consultar con un abogado.
