CASE NO. PES-24-307086 To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of HELEN MARGUERITE WEHRL A Petition for Probate has been filed by SAN FRANCISCO PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR in the Superior Court of California, County of San Francisco. The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows: Date: May 14, 2024, time: 9:00 a.m., Dept.: Probate, Room 204 Address of court: 400 McAllister Street, San Francisco, CA 94102. If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. File # 05949949 T.S. No.: 23-14106-107 Loan No.: **47 A.P.N.: Block 3779; Lot 146 52-54 Gilbert Street, San Francisco, Ca 94103 Notice of Trustee's Sale Note: There is a summary of the information in this document attached* [Pursuant to civil code § 2923.3(a), the summary of information referred to above is not attached to the recorded copy of this document, but only to the copies provided to trustor.] You are in default under a deed of trust dated 6/4/2020. Unless you take action to protect your property, it may be sold at a public sale. If you need an explanation of the nature of the proceeding against you, you should contact a lawyer. A public auction sale to the highest bidder for cash, cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, or savings association, or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state will be held by the duly appointed trustee as shown below, of all right, title, and interest conveyed to and now held by the trustee in the hereinafter described property under and pursuant to a Deed of Trust described below, with interest and late charges thereon, as provided in the note(s), advances, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, interest thereon, fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee for the total amount (at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale) reasonably estimated to be set forth below. The amount may be greater on the day of sale. Original Trustor(s): Ali Heidari, an unmarried man Duly Appointed Trustee: WT Capital Lender Services, a California corporation Recorded 6/8/2020, as Instrument No. 2020-K938836-00, of Official Records in the office of the Recorder of San Francisco County, California Date of Sale: 5/14/2024 at 1:30 PM Place of Sale: Outside the Memorial

Court Gates by Van Ness Avenue between 301 and 401 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, Ca Amount of unpaid balance and other charges: $1,889,224.41 Estimated Street Address or other common designation of real property: 52-54 Gilbert Street, San Francisco, Ca 94103 Legal Description: All that certain real property situated in the County of San Francisco, State of California, described as follows: Lot 146 as shown on that certain Map entitled "Parcel Map Merging of Lots 46 and 47, a portion of Assessor's Block 3779, San Francisco, California", which Map was filed for record in the Office of the Recorder of the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, on May 26, 1983, in Book 4 of Parcel Maps at Page 130, A.P.N.: Block 3779; Lot 146 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address or other common designation, if any, shown above. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. In the event that the Deed of Trust described in this Notice of Trustee's Sale is secured by real property containing one to four single-family residences, the following notices are provided pursuant to the provisions of Civil Code section 2924f. Notice to potential bidders: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. Bidders at the trustee auction must make cashier's checks payable to WT Capital. Third party cashier's checks will not be accepted. Notice to property owner: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 559-228-8393 or visit this internet website www.wtcap.com, using the file number assigned to this case 23-14106-107. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Notice to tenant: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction, you are or may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (559) 228-8393, or visit this internet website www.wtcap.com, using the file number assigned to this case 23-14106-107 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. gross receipts over $500,000 from ride-hail platform business activities within the City in order to provide funding towards preserving and expanding Muni public transit service levels; improving Muni access to parks, schools and libraries; and maintaining and expanding Muni fare discount programs. The names of the proponents are as follows: Christopher Arvin, Katherine Siegal, Lian Chang

 The city attorney has prepared the following title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure:
ADDITIONAL BUSINESS TAX ON TRANSPORTATION NETWORK COMPANIES AND AUTONOMOUS VEHICLE BUSINESSES
The Way It Is Now
 The City collects taxes on gross receipts from many businesses operating in San Francisco (Gross Receipts Tax). Generally, gross receipts are the total revenues a business receives from any source. For most businesses, the Gross Receipts Tax rate is between 0.03% and 1.00% of San Francisco gross receipts, with some rates scheduled to increase in coming years. Businesses with more than $50,000,000 in San Francisco gross receipts pay an additional tax at a rate between 0.175% and 0.69%. Some businesses that compensate their highest-paid managerial employee much higher than the median compensation they provide their San Francisco employees pay an additional gross receipts tax at a rate between 0.1 % and 0.6%. The City also imposes a per-ride tax on businesses that provide certain passenger rides originating in San Francisco, including on transportation network companies and on businesses providing rides in some types of autonomous vehicles. The rates for that tax are between 1.5% and 3.25% of the fare attributable to passenger rides within San Francisco. Transportation network company means a business that provides prearranged rides by connecting drivers to passengers. It does not include taxi or limousine services. Autonomous vehicles can operate without a human driver and some can transport passengers. State law limits the amount of revenue, including tax revenue, the City can spend each year. State law authorizes San Francisco voters to approve increases to this Limit for a maximum of four years.
The Proposal
 The proposed measure would create in addition to existing taxes a new gross receipts tax on transportation network companies and autonomous vehicle businesses that provide passenger service for compensation. The tax would be on their passenger transportation service gross receipts in San Francisco above $500,000. The tax rates would be:
 • 1% on taxable gross receipts between $500,000.01 and $1,000,000;
 • 2.5% on taxable gross receipts between $1,000,000.01 and $2,500,000;
 • 3.5% on taxable gross receipts between $2,500,000.01 and $25,000,000; and
 • 4.5% on taxable gross receipts over $25,000,000.
 The City would use the funds it collects from the new tax to:
 • Preserve, maintain, or increase the public transportation services of the San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency ("SFMTA");
 • Improve or preserve SFMTA service to public schools, libraries, and parks by increasing service frequency, or expanding or adding new routes; or
 • Maintain or expand discount fare or fare-free programs for people with disabilities, seniors, youth, students, and low-income passengers.
 The tax would remain in place unless the voters repeal it through a future ballot measure. The Board of Supervisors would have authority to amend the tax by a two-thirds vote if such amendment furthers the purpose of the tax. This proposal would also increase the City's spending limit for four years.
